Yesterday I was on the concert in reesnreget of "Street Bastardz" - one of my favorite hip-hop bands. They are great ones! "Laizeps", I said: "yeah man, they rocked really hard!". And they did! Everybody from SNE at Home has to listen to them. Some good songs can be found here: listen to Street Bastardz. At the End they gave me an autogramm on the CD: saying "live for Lai zeps from sne" isn't that cool?! I even learnd some new german words I'm very proud of: mein mudda und da beat!

laizeps trip to germany

21th september 2006 On my journy to europe i meet a nice guy. I said Lai seps is my name, he said his name was Schorch. What a funny name!!! He was from germany, some thing like "rhoihesse". I dont know where taht is. Anyway he took me for a ride. On board I met another guy who was on his truck. His name was Emil, even funnier. Although he was half naked i wasn't shocked. "Thath how germans are, laizeps!" - I thought". I had some funny discussion with both men. I talked about my home sne, and reesneget, and me laizeps and that some call be laizeps. Even I prefer to be called lai or zeps but NOT laizeps!!! Then Emil started to talk to lai, to me. He talked about some hobby shooting naked fotos in front of other people like me. He asked me if I want to put on some of his clothes made by zeps. But his clothes looked very strange, tiny and rather beeing from reesnegt: not those I know from SNE. I asked Schorch to help me, but he took fotos from me an emil all the time. Some of them are now on this website: SEO. Man! Please throw away all that pics!
